Imprisoning a Generation is a fifty-minute documentary film that follows the stories of four young Palestinians who have been detained and imprisoned under the Israeli military system. Their perspectives, along with the voices of their families, combine to form a lens into the entangled structures of oppression that expand well beyond the prison walls. Watch trailer at anemoia.net.

Imprisoning a Generation is available for groups to screen for advocacy purposes and educational initiatives. Contact Anemoi at anemoiaprojects@gmail.com.
